

Amazon Business Punch-In

Simplify the process, and increase compliance.

Making it easier to buy the right stuff at the right price.

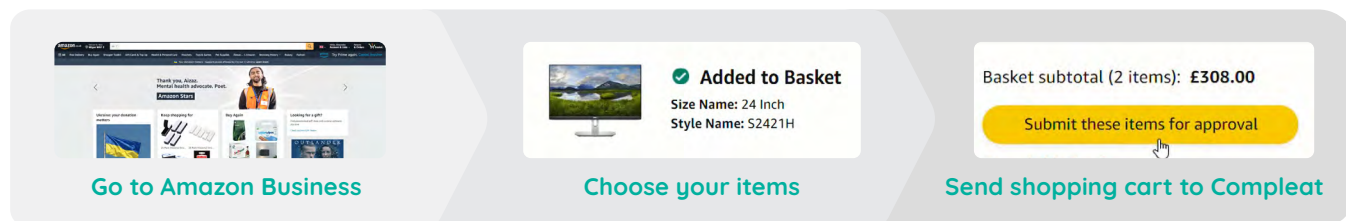

We all know that buying online just makes sense. It is faster and easier, it gives greater choice and more flexibility, best of all, it saves you money!

So why limit how many people in your business can buy online through Amazon Business?

With Punch-In, you benefit from all the key business benefits of industry standard “Punch-Out” (accountability, compliance, etc.) except the user doesn’t need to log into a P2P system before making a purchase.

All you need is a Compleat product and a desire to save money!

If you’re not sure about how easy Punch-In really is, we’ve made a diagram:
